NOTES ON FEES

- The University Council approved an increase in the 2025 fees by 5.5 percent (%) except the Laptop and Repairs/ Maintenance fees. This increase will accommodate the rise in prices of goods and services
- Compulsory and outstanding fees owing by continuing students must be paid in full before the 7th February 2025.
- If you need accommodation on campus, you either pay fifty percent (50%) of the Board & Lodging (B&L) Fees or pay in full before the 7th February 2025. The remaining balance MUST be paid by the 6th June 2025. A K500.00 Compulsory Bond Fee is also imposed on all residential students before you can be allocated a room on campus. The fee is refundable only when you finally complete your studies provided there is no damage nor destruction to university property. The bond fee will be automatically forfeited in the event of a riot caused by students.
- All Fees must be paid into the PNG University of Natural Resources & Environment's Bank Account#. 1000-688625 with Bank of South Pacific, Kokopo Branch.
- Non-payment of the required fees by the given deadline will result in you being denied completion of your registration formalities.
- Fees payable by a student on TESAS Scholarship may be adjusted subject to advice from the Department of Higher Education, Research, Science & Technology (DHERST). In the event DHERST does not pay for its component of the fees, the student will be responsible to complete payment of the fees.
- The university does not accept "Letters of Guarantee" as a means for a student to register, as upfront payment in full is required.
- Any student who is not able to pay all applicable fees as stated above, must not come to PNGUNRE for studies in 2025. The University will not be responsible for the welfare of any students who turns up without paying the required fees and is denied Registration and Board & Lodging facilities on campus.
