(2) The Pro-Chancellor shall, in the absence of the Chancellor, perform the functions of the Chancellor.

28. THE VICE-CHANCELLOR.

(1) Upon recommendation from the Minister, there shall be a Vice-Chancellor who shall be appointed in the manner and for the term prescribed by the Statutes, who shall be selected in accordance with the Regulations and approved by the National Executive Council.

(2) The Vice-Chancellor shall be a full-time salaried Officer of the University and, subject to the Salaries and Conditions Monitoring Committee Act 1988, matters relating to his emoluments and other terms and conditions of employment shall be prescribed by the Statutes.

29. FUNCTIONS AND POWERS OF VICE-CHANCELLOR.

The Vice-Chancellor shall—

(a) ^[15] be the academic and administrative Head of the University and shall exercise general supervision and control over the affairs of the University and as and when the attendance of the university is required to represent it within or without the country; and

(b) give effect to the decisions of the authorities of the University and ensure that the provisions of this Act are duly observed; and

(c) where, in his opinion, there has arisen an emergency which requires that immediate action be taken, take such action as he deems necessary and report the same to the next meeting of the authority which, in the ordinary course, would have dealt with the matter; and

(d) ^[16] be the ex officio Chairman of the Senate and of such authorities as the Council determines and, in the absence of the Chancellor and the Pro-Chancellor, preside at any Convocation of the University for conferring degrees; and

(e) be a member ex officio of all authorities, boards or committees of the University and be entitled to be present at and address any meeting of any staff or student association recognized by the University; and

(f) ^[17] have the power to convene meetings of the Council, Senate and all other authorities, committees, sub-committees and boards of the University and staff and student bodies recognized by the University; and

(g) arrange for the preparation of the Annual Report relating to the activities of the University, including statistical information required by Section 168, Annual Accounts and the Audit Report; and

(h) submit the Annual report to the Council no later than 31st March in the following year.

- (i) prepare the budget of the University for the next financial year.
- (j) submit the budget to the Council no later than 31st July.
- (k) exercise such other powers and perform such other functions as may be prescribed by this Act.

30. PRO VICE-CHANCELLORS.

[\[18\]](#) (1) There shall be one or more Pro Vice-Chancellors who shall be appointed in the manner and for the term prescribed by the Statutes.

(2) A Pro Vice-Chancellor shall, in the absence of the Vice-Chancellor, exercise the powers, perform the functions and discharge the duties of the Vice-Chancellor.

(3) A Pro Vice-Chancellor shall exercise such powers, perform such functions and discharge such duties as the Vice-Chancellor may, from time to time delegate to him, or as may be imposed or conferred on him by this Act.

31. OTHER OFFICERS.

The powers, duties and functions of other Officers of the University shall be prescribed by the Statutes.

PART V. – STATUTES.

32. STATUTES.

(1) The Council may make Statutes in respect of–

(a) any matter for which this Act specifically provides; and

(b) the attainment of any of the objects of the University; and

(c) [\[19\]](#) the powers and duties of the Council, Senate, any authority or other body or any Officer of the University; and

(d) generally, the management and government of the University.

(2) The Statutes may provide for empowering any authority or Officers of the University to make by-laws, rules or orders (not inconsistent with this Act) for–

(a) regulating any specified matter; or

(b) carrying out or giving effect to the Statutes, and any such by-law, rule or order has the same force and effect as a Statute.

(3) No Statute affecting the constitution, powers or functions of any existing authority shall be made until the authority has been afforded the opportunity to submit a written report on it to the Council.

33. APPROVAL AND PUBLICATION.

(1) Every Statute shall be—

(a) sealed with the common seal of the University; and

(b) transmitted by the Chancellor to the Minister for approval by the Head of State, acting on advice, and when so approved shall be notified in the National Gazette.

(2) The notification of a Statute in the National Gazette shall specify the place at which copies of the Statute may be purchased.

(3) A Statute shall not be expressed to take effect from a date before the date of notification in a case where, if it so took effect—

(a) the rights of a person (other than the University) existing at the date of notification would be affected in a manner prejudicial to him; or

(b) liabilities would be imposed on a person (other than the University) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of notification.

(4) A copy of each Statute shall be laid before the Parliament within six sitting days of the Parliament after notification of the Statute in the National Gazette.

(5) The production of—

(a) a copy of a Statute under the common seal of the University; or

(b) a document purporting to be a copy of a Statute and to have been printed by the Government Printer or on behalf of the University, is, in all proceedings, sufficient evidence of the Statute.

(6) The Statutes made in each secular year shall be numbered in regular arithmetical series, beginning with the number 1, in the order in which they are notified in the National Gazette.

PART VI. – FINANCE, PROPERTY, ETC.

35. BASIC FINANCE.

(1) The State shall each year pay to the University a sum of money, which shall be determined by the National Executive Council, on the advice and recommendation of the Minister responsible for the Department of Higher Education, Research, Science and Technology.

(2)^{[20][21]} The amounts payable to the University under this section shall be paid out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

36. ACQUISITION, CONTROL AND MANAGEMENT OF PROPERTY.

(1) The University may acquire any property by gift, bequest or devise and agree to carry out the conditions of the gift, bequest or devise and create and administer such trust funds as are necessary or expedient for carrying out the conditions.

(2) Subject to this section, the Council has the control and management of all property vested in or acquired by the University, and may dispose of property in the name of and on behalf of the University.

(3) The Council shall not, except with the approval of the Minister, alienate, mortgage, charge or demise any lands, tenements or hereditaments of the University, except by way of lease for a term not exceeding 21 years from the time the lease is made.

37. INVESTMENT FUNDS.

The Council may—

(a) establish one or more investment funds for the collective investment of trust funds held by or in the custody of the University; and

(b) without liability for breach of trust, bring into or withdraw from any such investment fund the whole or any part of any such trust fund.

38. BORROWING.

Subject to this Act, the Council may borrow money at interest by way of mortgage, bank overdraft or otherwise—

(a) for the purpose of carrying out or performing any of its powers, functions, duties and responsibilities; or

(b) for the repayment or partial repayment of any sum previously borrowed, within such limits and on such conditions as to security or otherwise as the Minister approves.

39. LENDINGS.

(1) Subject to Subsection (2), the University shall not advance or lend money to any person without the prior consent of the Minister.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to or in relation to—

(a) money to which Section 36(1) or 37 applies; or

(b) loans to members of the staff or students, or the remission or postponement of fees.

PART VII. – MISCELLANEOUS.

40. VALIDITY OF PROCEEDINGS.

Any act or proceedings of any authority or committee or by any person acting as a member of that authority or committee or as an Officer of the University shall not be invalidated by reason of—

(a) a defect in the appointment of such a person; or

(b) a disqualification of such a person; or

(c) a defect in the convening of a meeting; or

(d) a vacancy in the number of members of an authority.

PART VIII. – TRANSITIONAL.

41. REPEAL

University of Goroka Act 1997 is hereby repealed.

42. CONTINUATION OF UNIVERSITY.

Notwithstanding the repealed Act, the University continues its establishment as provided by Section 3 and all the assets, property, rights, obligations and liabilities which, immediately before the commencement date, were vested in or imposed on the University shall, on that date, continue to be vested in or imposed on the University.

43. PRIVILEGES, HONOURS, ETC., TO BE DEEMED TO HAVE BEEN GRANTED UNDER THIS ACT.

All privileges, awards, degrees, honours, distinctions and duties granted, conferred, awarded, imposed or incurred under the repealed Act shall be deemed to have been granted, conferred, awarded, imposed or incurred under this Act.

44. OFFICERS APPOINTED, ETC., UNDER REPEALED ACT.

All Officers of the University elected, nominated or appointed under the repealed Act shall continue to hold such offices on the terms and conditions determined under the repealed Act and until the expiry of the period for which they were elected, nominated or appointed or until such officers are elected, nominated or appointed under this Act, whichever first occurs.

45. SAVING OF CONTRACTS.

All contracts, agreements, conveyances, leases, deeds, licences and other instruments and undertakings entered into by, made with or addressed to the University, whether alone or with any other person, before, and in effect immediately before, the commencement date, continue on that date, to the extent that they were previously binding on and enforceable against the University, to be binding and of full force and effect in every respect against or in favour of the University as if entered into, made with or addressed to the University after the commencement date.

46. ACTIONS, ETC., NOT TO ABATE.

Where, immediately before the commencement of this Act, any action, arbitration or proceeding, or any cause of action, arbitration or proceeding, was pending or existing by, against or in favour of the University, it does not, on that date, abate or discontinue or be in any way affected by any provision of this Act, but it may be prosecuted, continued and enforced by, against or in favour of the University as if this Act had not been made.
